
Title: Guidelines and Bylaws

Author: The Royal Court of Light

The following Guidelines and Bylaws were duly voted and accepted by the members of the Royal Court of Light
at the Royal Court,
Luna, Malas.

The Royal Court of Light Guidelines and
bylaws are as follows:

The Royal Court of Light is to be guided by feudalistic virtue.

It is based on the royal ranking system and is meant to serve as a true working government for land usage discussions, event and promotional community fellowship and friendly communication on a general scale, and perhaps military
movements and action.

Guilds that choose to act within the body of the RCL will be expected to maintain a high level of polite etiquette, respect their fellow members, keep their sword or offensive magery or
arcane powers at stay,
and listen as well as
speak on productive
non-abrasive matters,
and above all respect
the virtues.

The RCL is based
out of Luna.

The capitol of the RCL
will be Luna City.

The short term objective of the RCL is to united and help to establish said doctrine and perfect the guidelines so that the operation fo council
might achieve a high level of activity and community participation.

The long term goals of the RCL are to maintain friendship and help guide it's members, large or small into a bond of respect for protect one another from harm, assist in teachings, contribute to the betterment of Malas, and bring all together to learn and meet in kind from the other.

Guidelines for conduct
during meetings:

- Do not speak whilst
one has the floor,
opportunity will be given,
and there is no need for unproductive outbursts whether verbal or otherwise.

- Virtue, and the 8
virtues will be respected, this is something we all work at and if one is lead astray, help will be provided to those that are willing and in need.

- From the weakest member to the strongest member, all will be heard, and all will be treated with kindness and the utmost respect.

- The representative need not be the guild leader but must be able to vote for their guild if a vote is called.

- Approval for membership will be determined by vote with the chairperson having veto powers.

- Removal will be held in the exact same manner as acceptance, and must be based on fact with the exception of attendance. Removal after repeated absences amounting to missed meetings in a period of 2 months without reason or cause stated.

Regarding attendance:

- In order to call a vote there must be a motion and a second, and then there would be a vote. There must be a quorum there of at least 1/2 the membership in order to have a vote.

- Issues dealing with the Chairman directly the chairman can not veto. The chairman can vote in that case but he/she can not use his veto powers. [This is to protect the body of the government from a chairman that needs to be removed from leadership]

- Rather than removal, if three
